

BOMBAY GYMKHANA

P R E S E N T S

INDO JAZZ FUSION NITE

with Phil Scarff

Phil Scarff is pioneering the performance of North Indian classical music on soprano saxophone, exquisitely capturing the subtlety and depth of this music on a Western instrument. He has "beautifully molded the saxophone to Indian classical music," extols Sakal, Kolhapur, India.

Phil received extensive training Hindustani music in Pune, India, from vocalist Pt. Shreeram Devasthali, leading sundri artist Suryakant Khaladkar, and shehnai master Shyamrao Lonkar, and in Boston, USA, from sitar master Peter Row, and vocalists Kalpana Mazumdar and Warren Senders.

Date: 23rd, Jan 2012.

Venue: Dining Hall

Timing: 7 pm to 8.30 pm

Please register at reception. Max two guests per member at of Rs.150/- per guest.